Starlight Concert – early December, 2007

Have you ever dreamed of attending a classical concert, listening to your favourite melodies under the starlit sky? Wouldn't it be even better if it were held in a place full of your happy, youthful memories? Didn't we mention that you would have the full view of the tranquil race course, and perhaps you would chance to sing under the stars?

The PSA is planning to have the first-ever Starlight Concert in early winter 2007. On this special evening, you will get a chance to be impressed by the superb performance of the SPSS Orchestra on the playground of SPSS, enjoy a casual dinner, and catch up with other fellow Paulinians, past and present. Stay tuned for more details of this exciting event!

Recent Activities:

Continuing the success of the career panel held in 2005, a new series of Careers Talks kicked off in July, 2007 to benefit our fellow 4th and 6th Formers. The first two talks were given on 5th July 2007 by two of our own Paulinians, Winnie Ho (Cathay Holidays) and Karin Wong (Ad Browns) on tourism and advertising respectively. It was well attended by 197 students, with an overall rating of $4.27/5$. Karin Wong, an award-winning creative director, is the mastermind behind the National Anthem Video shown daily before the evening news! Her message to the students was that applicants to her field were expected to have high academic qualifications and a good command of English.

If you are interested in giving a careers talk (30 min to 45 min) to your fellow Paulinians, don't be shy and contact us!

Alma Mater connection:

PSA President Connie Kwok and Secretary Winnie Wong attended St. Paul's Feast Day on June 29. Connie Kwok also represented the PSA to attend the School Advisory Board meeting on 20 June 2007.
